DFA Ingredients Business Units Come Together to Form DFA Ingredient Solutions
New structure provides a broader portfolio of dairy ingredients and support for food manufacturers and operators

Kansas City, Kan. (Dec. 18, 2019) – Dairy Farmers of America (DFA) has realigned its Ingredients division, including dairy powders, dairy food ingredients, DairiConcepts and Berkshire Dairy, to form DFA Ingredient Solutions. This new group offers a vast portfolio of award-winning, dairy-based ingredients: cheese, sweetened condensed milk, butter solutions, milk and nutritional powders, seasoning blends, dairy concentrates and flavors, along with custom solutions.

DFA Ingredient Solutions leverages its team of scientists, risk management, customer service and logistics professionals to provide the right solutions for its customers — from chefs to food manufacturers — that seamlessly integrate into their production processes and end products.

“Through our division, we are connecting our family farm-owners to consumers around the world through our portfolio of diverse dairy-based ingredients,” says Martin Bates, senior vice president and chief operating officer for DFA Ingredient Solutions. “Working as one team allows us to be customer-focused and provide them with a seamless, efficient experience.”

DFA Ingredient Solutions provides innovative dairy taste and flavor solutions that nourish people around the world, all powered by a sustainable supply of milk from DFA’s unbeatable network of family farm-owners.
